INDEX TO VOL. LXXIV

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ABD

ABDICATION, 1328–1335
Agricultural Problem, Current Misconceptions of the, 1105–1124
Agriculture, A Minimum Wage for, 1167–1184
Agriculture and Development Commission, 1089–1104
Agriculture and Land Inquiry, 1081–1088
Agriculture and small ownership, 273–282
Agriculture, The Greater, 92–108
Ailesbury (Marquess of), Some Reflections on the Land Inquiry, 1081–1088
Alexander the First and St. Petersburg, 402–412
American enterprise and Panama Canal, 68–77
American women-voters, 1336–1341
Anglo-American Reunion, An, 480–501
Anglo-Indian ideals and native unrest, 244–255
Animals' Salvation Army, The, 845–864
Armenia, The Russians in, 1357–66
Army reform, Lord Cardwell and Lord Haldane, 38–67
Art and beauty, State direction for, 1193–1210
Art, science, and right use of museums, 1211–1219
Art treasures in American collections, 534–542
Australasia, Military training and religious scruples in, 462–468
Australasia, Votes for women in, 979–987
Australia, Tropical: a Great Colonising Experiment, 333–340
Austrian view of Balkan crisis, 872–887
Authors, publishers, and censorship, 612–620
Avignon and John Stuart Mill, 502–526

BACON-SHAKESPEARE controversy and Ben Jonson, 965–978, 1294–1310
Balfour (Mr.) and the House of Commons, 375–383

BBO

Balkan Fiasco, The, 295–300
Balkan Outlook, The, as seen from Vienna, 872–887
Balkan troubles, Greeks and Bulgarians in conflict, 707–720, 1342–56
Barker (J. Ellis), An Anglo-American Reunion, 480–501
Barrett (Elizabeth, Mrs. Browning), Poems of, 164–184
Bedford (Duke of), How to Restore our Military Efficiency, 38–67; a reply to, 453–461
Bengal, Riots, dacoities, and unrest in, 1185–1192
Bennett (Mrs.), Ten Months' Captivity after the Massacre at Cawnpore: a Survivor's Narrative, 78–91
Bensusan (S. L.), Birds and the Plumage Trade, 1067–1080
Bergson (Henri) on Laughter, 803–813
Birds and the Plumage Trade, 1067–1080
Blake (Lady), 'Tir-na-Bes': a Study of Irish Life—and Death, 130–135
Blake (Sir Henry), How is Civil War to be averted? 673–682
Bland (J. O. P.), Woman Suffrage in the United States, 1336–1341
Bloem (Walter) and German nationalist literature, 601–605
Bournemouth and Sir Harry Johnston, 887–888
Bradley (Rose M.), An Industrious Diarist of the Eighteenth Century, 301–320
Brain-workers, Women as, 1284–1293
Brend (W.A.), The New Health Crusade, 1059–1066
British birds, beasts, flowers, and woodlands, Protection of, 580–594
British Empire, Constitution and Executive for the, 419–437
British farming and food supply in war time, 92–108
British Fine Arts Ministry, A, 1193–1210
British Tobacco Growers' Society and Development Commission, 632–642
Browning (Elizabeth Barrett): Woman and Poet, 164–184

BUD

Buddhism, Confucianism, or Christianity for China, 908–923
Bulgaria and her Traducers, 1342–56
Bulgarians and Greeks in conflict, 707–720; 1342–1356
Buxton (Noel), The Russians in Armenia, 1357–1366

CABINET Minister and Council to safeguard interests of women, 988–1007
Canada and Imperial Navy, 208–232
Capitulations in Egypt and justice for Europeans, 1–10
Cataracts of King George, The, 643–655
Catholic revival in France and Charles Péguy, 11–37, 1008–1025
'Catholic Revival,' The Collapse of the, 814–833
Cawnpore, Ten Months' Captivity after the Massacre at: a Survivor's Narrative, 78–91
Celts of British Isles, their racial differences, 119–129
Centenary of peace between England and America, 480–501
Channel Tunnel Project, The Revived, 469–471
Charlton (Hon. Mrs.), Rescue and Ransom at the Gates of India, 185–207; The Animals' Salvation Army, 845–864; Six Osmanli Patriots, 1220–1229
Chatterton-Hill (Dr. Georges), The Reawakening of France, 11–37; The New Spirit in French Literature: Charles Péguy, 1008–1025
China, The Religious Future of, 908–923
Christianity, eugenics, and racial development, 155–163
Christianity, Socialism, and the Kingdom of God, 384–401
Church disestablishment in England and France, 527–532
Circulating Libraries, their Complaint and Cure, 612–620
Civil Service of India, The, 233–243
Civil Service of India as cause of unrest, 784–791
Civil war, compromise, or settlement by consent, 1143–1154
Civil War, How is it to be averted? 673–682
Clark (Rev. Henry W.), The Prospects of Religion under Socialism, 384–401
Clarke (Rev. A. H. T.), The Collapse of the 'Catholic Revival,' 814–833
Clifford (Mrs. W. K.), A Remembrance of George Eliot, 109–118
Collins (Sir William), The Treatment of Inebriates, 764–773
Colonisation of Tropical Australia, 333–340

EXP

Commerce in war time, 256–272
Commons, House of, Mr. Balfour and the, 375–383
Compulsory military training for imperial defence, 453–468
Compulsory Training, The Attitude of Religious Thought in Australasia towards, 462–468
Cookson (Geoffrey), Why is there Disloyalty in India? 244–255
Courtney (Mrs. W. L.), The Prospects of Women as Brain-Workers, 1284–93
Crammond (Edgar), Financial Preparation for War, 924–943, 1366
Crewdson (Wilson), A Japanese Gulliver, 1248–1265
Cromer (Earl of), The Capitulations in Egypt, 1–10
Cruelty to animals, efforts at prevention, 845–864; in India, 185–207
Currency Commission and rehabilitation of silver, 944–964

DACOITIES and riots in Bengal, 1185–1192
Democracy, Jacobinism, and mob rule, 321–332
Diarist, An Industrious, of the Eighteenth Century, 301–320
Diderot (Denis), 753–763
Disestablishment in France and in England, 527–532
Disloyalty in India, Why is there? 244–255
Does it Rhyme? 358–374
Drunkenness, mental deficiency, and Farmfield Reformatory, 764–773
Dublin Castle and government of Ireland, 568–579
Dunraven (Earl of), A Last Plea for Federation, 1125–1142

ECONOMIC preservation of birds, 1067–1080
Education for Indian Civil Service, 233–243
Egypt, The Capitulations in, 1–10
Eliot (George), A Remembrance of, 109–118
Encyclopædists, Diderot and other, 753–763
England's defence, Harold the Dauntless, 721–736
England's safety and Channel Tunnel, 469–471
English Pictures in America, 534–542
Esperanto and world-languages, 621–631
Eugenics, Ethics, and Religion, 155–163
Europeans in Egypt, capitulary safeguards, 1–10
Export Trade, Our, The Deflection of, in Time of War, 256–272

FAR

FARMFIELD Reformatory for inebriates, 764–773
Fauna, Flora, and Scenery, The Protection of, 580–594, 887–888
Federation, A Last Plea for, 1125–1142
Fielding-Hall (H.), The Danger in India, 784–791
Figgis (Darrell), Some Recent Notable Novels, 792–802
Financial Preparation for War, 924–943, 1366
Fine Arts, British Ministry for the, 1193–1210
Finland and Women's Suffrage, 979–987
Food supply in war time, and British agriculture, 92–108
France, The Re-awakening of, 11–37
Franqueville (Comtesse de), Disestablishment in France and in England, 527–532
French Literature, The New Spirit in: Charles Péguy, 1008–1025
Frenchmen, Two Notable, 1311–1327
French Revolution and the Encyclopædists, 753–763
Frewen (Moreton), The Indian Commission and Silver, 944–964
Friendly Societies and National Insurance, 1036–1058
Frodsham (Bishop), Tropical Australia: a Great Colonising Experiment, 333–340; The Attitude of Religious Thought in Australasia towards Compulsory Training, 462–468; The Women's Parliamentary Franchise in Practice, 979–987
Fuller (Sir Bampfylde), A Visit to the Panama Canal, 68–77; A Psychological View of the Irish Question, 683–693
Fun, wit, and humour, 803–813

GARDENS and villas, Italian and English, 136–154
George (Mr. Lloyd) and small ownership, 273–282
German expansion, Russian aspirations, and Balkan War, 283–300
German Fiction, Recent, 595–611
Gold reserves as provision against War, 924–943
Greek Army, An Englishman with the: Shortest and most Sanguinary Campaign on Record, 707–720; a reply, 1342–1356
Gribble (Francis), Denis Diderot, 753–763
Gulliver, A Japanese, 1248–1265
Gwynn (Stephen), Mr. Balfour and the House of Commons, 375–383

INE

HARBERTON (Viscount), Does Rhyme? 358–374
Harrison (Mrs. Frederic), Abdication, 1328–1335
Hastings, Battle of, and Harold the Dauntless, 721–736
Hawkes (Arthur), An Imperial Deadlock, and the Way out: an English Canadian's View, 208–232
Health Crusade, The New, 1059–1066
Herring (John Frederick) and Charles Stanhope, 341–357
Heyking (Elisabeth von) and German love-stories, 595–601
Hickey (Emily), Elizabeth Barrett Browning: Woman and Poet, 164–184
Hill (S. M. Calmont), Sir Harry Johnston and Bournemouth, 887–888
Home Defence and National Service League, 453–461
Home Rule, compromise, or civil war, 673–682, 683–693; a way out, 889–907; federalism, 1125–1142; settlement by consent, 1143–1154; redistribution of Parliamentary seats first, 1115–1166
Home-Workers of London, My Friends among the, 834–844
House of Commons reform, redistribution before Home Rule, 1155–1166
Howe (P. P.), The Circulating Libraries, their Complaint and its Cure, 612–620
Humour, 803–813

IMAGINATION, Memory and, 553–567
Imperial and National Interdependence, Lord Milner on, 438–452
Imperial and National Safety, 453–471
Imperial Deadlock, An, and the Way out: an English Canadian's View, 208–232
Imperial Defence and financial readiness for war, 924–943; Army reserves and Territorials, 38–67
Imperial Executive, The Problem of an, 419–437
India, Rescue and Ransom at the Gates of, 185–207
India, The Civil Service of, 233–243
India, The Danger in, 784–791
India, Why is there Disloyalty in? 244–255
Indian Commission, The, and Silver, 944–964
Indian Mutiny, a survivor's story, 78–91
Indian Unrest and its Treatment by Government, 1185–1192
Indian wife's life story, 413–418
Inebriates, The Treatment of, 764–773

INS

Insurance Act, The Working and Amending of the, 1036–1058
Intellectual and religious renascence in France, 11–37
International Medical Congress, 543–552
Interoceanic canal of Panama, 68–77
Ireland, How she is Governed, 568–579
Ireland, racial and religious differences in, 683–693
Irish Enigma, The, 1125–1166
Irish Life—and Death, A Study of, 130–135
Irish Question, A Psychological View of the, 683–693
Italian Villas, Old, and their Lesson, 136–154

JAPANESE Gulliver, A, 1248–1265
Japanese views upon memory and imagination, 553–567
Johnson (Esther) and Dean Swift, 1230–1247
Johnston (Sir Harry H.), The Protection of Fauna, Flora, and Scenery: a Commonsense View, 580–594; Paris this Autumn, 1026–1035
Johnston (Sir Harry) and Bournemouth, 887–888
Johnston (R. Fleming), The Religious Future of China, 908–923
Jonson (Ben), A Libel on, 1294–1310
Jonson's (Ben) Pious Fraud, 965–978

KENNEDY (J. M.), What the Workmen think, 694–706
Knowles (Sir James), The Revived Channel Tunnel Project, 469–471

LABOUR unrest and its remedies, 694–706
Land Inquiry, Some Reflections on the, 1081–1088
'Land of the Dead,' Nora Flynn and Tom Mahony, 130–135
Land Reform and the Chancellor, 273–282
Larpent (Mrs.), dramatic critic and diarist, 301–320
Lawrence (Mrs.) Petersburg in 1806: from the Diary of R. H. Lawrence, 402–412
Lee-Warner (Sir William), The Civil Service of India, 233–243
Lethbridge (Sir Roper), The Nationalities of Ulster and Wales, 119–129
Lewes (George Henry) and George Eliot, 109–118

MUS

Libraries, The, and recent works of fiction, 792–802
Life's mysteries, memory, sleep, and telepathy, 737–752, 1266–1283
Lilly (W. S.), One Man One Vote, 321–332; The Meaning of Memory, 737–752; 'The Mystery of Sleep,' 1266–1283
Lindsay (Prof. J. A.), The Main Currents of Contemporary Medical Thought, 543–552
Longard de Longgarde (Madame), Recent German Fiction, 595–611
Low (Sidney), The Problem of an Imperial Executive, 419–437
Lyttelton (Canon), Eugenics, Ethics, and their Lesson, 155–163

MACDONALD (William), The Cataracts of King George, 643–655
Macnaughtan (Miss S.), Humour, 803–813
Malden (W. J.), The Greater Agriculture, 92–108
Mallock (W. H.), Current Misconceptions of the Agricultural Problem, 1105–1124
March-Phillipps (Evelyn), Old Italian Villas and their Lesson, 136–154
Markino (Yoshio), Memory and Imagination, 553–567
Medical Thought, The Main Currents of Contemporary, 543–552
Memory and Imagination, 553–567
Memory, The Meaning of, 737–752
Methuen (Field Marshal Lord), Impressions of the Territorial Force, 774–783
Military Efficiency, How to restore our, 38–67; a reply to, 453–461
Mill (John Stuart), The Romance of, 502–526
Milner (Lord) on Imperial and National Interdependence, 438–452
Minimum Wage for Agriculture, A, 1167–1184
Mitra (S. M.), Voice for Women—without Votes, 988–1007
Molesworth (Sir Guilford), Blundering Social Reform, 656–672
Morgan (Prof. J. H.), How Ireland is Governed, 568–579; Ulster, 889–907
Morrison-Bell (Major Clive), Reform the House of Commons First, 1155–1166
Moslem Progress, The Hope of, 472–479
Murray (Major Stewart L.), The Deflection of our Export Trade in Time of War, 256–272
Museums, The Public Utility of, 1211–1219

NAT

NATION, The, and the Empire, Lord Milner's speeches on, 438–452
National defence and the Territorials, 774–783
National Insurance and Friendly Societies, 1036–1058
National Service League and Home Defence Army, 453–461
Newman (Cardinal) and the passing of the Oxford Movement, 814–833
Novels, Some Recent Notable, 792–802

OCTOBER 14, 1066, 721–736
Ollivier (Emile) and Second French Empire, 1311–1322
One Man One Vote, 321–333
O'Neill (Æneas), The Balkan Outlook as seen from Vienna, 872–887
Orange River Falls or King George's Cataract, 643–655
Osborn (E. B.), Universal Languages, 621–631
Osmanli Patriots, Six, 1220–1229
Oxford Movement, Passing of the, 814–833
Ozanne (J. W.), The Balkan Fiasco, 295–300

PANAMA Canal, A Visit to the, 68–77
Pangermanism versus Panslavism, 283–294
Paquet (Alfons), his story of Karl Fleming, 605–611
Paris this Autumn, 1026–1035
Parker (Sir Gilbert), Land Reform and the Chancellor, 273–282
Parliamentary oratory, Mr. Balfour, Mr. Asquith, and Lord Hugh Cecil, 375–383
Parliamentary redistribution of seats before Home Rule, 1115–1166
Pauperism and Socialist legislation, 656–672
Péguy (Charles), The New Spirit in French Literature, 1008–1025
Petersburg in 1806 : from the Diary of R. H. Lawrence, 402–412
Phelps (Miss Sydney K.), My Friends among the Home-Workers of London, 834–844
Physical deterioration and State regulation of vice, 1059–1066
Pickthall (Marmaduke), The Hope of Moslem Progress, 472–479
Pigou (A. C.), A Minimum Wage for Agriculture, 1167–1184
Plumage Trade, Birds and the, 1067–1080
Plural voting and tyranny of the majority, 321–332
Poetry and rhyme, 358–374

SOC

Pope, Is the Present Neglect of him merited? 865–871
Prinsep (Sir Henry T.), Indian Unrest and its Treatment by Government, 1185–1192
Psychology and physiology of mind and memory, 737–752, 1266–1283

QUEENSLAND and Northern Australia for white colonists, 333–340

RACIAL and religious differences in Ireland, 683–693
Rappoport (Dr. Angelo S.), Pangermanism versus Panslavism : The Slav Peril, 283–294
Reawakening of France, The, 11–37
Reform the House of Commons First, 1155–1166
Religion, The Prospects of, under Socialism, 384–401
Religious scruples concerning military training, 462–468
Rey (Le Pasteur), The Romance of John Stuart Mill, 502–526
Reynolds-Stephens (W.), A British Fine Arts Ministry, 1193–1210
Rhyme and antithesis and poetry of Pope, 865–871
Rhyming, The art of, 358–374
Roberts (Earl), How to Restore our Military Efficiency : a reply to the Duke of Bedford, 453–468
Roberts (W.), English Pictures in America, 534–542
Robertson-Scott (J. W.), English and Welsh Tobacco, 632–642; Whitehall and the Countryman, 1089–1104
Rochefort (Henri), the Commune, and Third Republic, 1311–1327
Rural Problem, The, 1081–1124
Russia under Alexander the First, 402–412
Russia, Panslavism, and Balkan War, 283–300
Russians in Armenia, The, 1357–1366

SETON-KARR (Sir Henry), What is the next Step? 1143–1154
Shakespeare, Bacon, and Ben Jonson, 965–978, 1294–1310
Silver, The Indian Commission and, 944–964
Slav Peril, The, 283–300
'Sleep, The Mystery of,' 1266–1283
Small ownership and agriculture, 273–283
Smithson (Edward W.), Ben Jonson's Pious Fraud, 965–978
Social Reform, Blundering, 656–672

SOC

Socialism, The Prospects of Religion under, 384–401
Sorabji (Cornelia), 'Tum-Ta,' 413–418
Stirling (Mrs.), The Whip and the Brush, 341–357
'Strange Lands, Tales of,' Japanese Gulliver, 1248–1265
Sudeley (Lord), The Public Utility of Museums, 1211–1219
Sullivan (Sir Edward), A Libel on Ben Jonson, 1294–1310
Swift, Stella, and Vanessa, 1230–1247

TAVERNIER (Eugène), Two Notable Frenchmen, 1311–1327
Taylor (Mrs.) and John Stuart Mill, 502–526
Territorial Force, Impressions of the, 774–783
Thackeray (Rev. Francis St. John), Is the Present Neglect of Pope merited? 865–871
Tir-na-Bes: a Study of Irish Life—and Death, 130–135
Tobacco, English and Welsh, 632–642
Trapmann (Captain A. H.), The Shortest and most Sanguinary Campaign on Record: Some Observations by an Englishman with the Greek Army, 707–720; a reply, 1342–1356
'Tum-Ta,' 413–418
Turkey, Adrianople, and the Balkan States, 295–300
Turkey and Russophil Armenians, 1357–1366
Turkish national ideals and Western critics, 472–479
Turkish patriots, Six, 1220–1229

ULSTER, 889–907
Ulster and Wales, The Nationalities of, 119–129
Ulster Unionists and Home Rule, 673–682, 683–693, 1125–1166
Universal Languages, 621–631
Unrest in India and its causes, 784–791

YU

VANHOMRIGH (Miss) and Dean Swift, 1230–1247
Voice for Women—without Votes, 988–1007, 1366
Votes for women in Finland, Australasia, and the United States, 979–987, 1336–1341

WAGE-RATES of agricultural and other labourers, 1167–1184
Wallace (H. M.), Bulgaria and her Traducers, 1342–1356
War, Financial Preparation for, 924–943
War, Our Export Trade in time of, 256–272
Ware (Fabian), Lord Milner on Imperial and National Interdependence, 438–452
What is the next Step? 1143–1154
Whip, The, and the Brush, 341–357
Whitehall and the Countryman, 1089–1104
Wilkinson (Rev. J. Frome), The Working and Amending of the Insurance Act, 1036–1058
Woman Suffrage in the United States, 1336–1341
Woman suffragists and sex-antagonism, 1328–1335
Women as Brain-Workers, The Prospects of, 1284–1293
Women toilers and Home Workers' Association, 834–844
Women, Voice for—without Votes, 988–1007
Women's Parliamentary Franchise, The, in Practice, 979–987
Woods (Margaret L.), Swift, Stella, and Vanessa, 1230–1247
Workmen, The, What they think, 694–706
Wyatt (Harold F.), October 14, 1066, 721–736

YOUNG Turk Party and its leaders, 1220–1229
Yu-koku-shi, his 'Tales of Strange Lands,' 1248–1265

PRINTED BY
SPOTTISWOODE AND CO. LTD., LONDON
COLCHESTER AND ETON